I'm amused to see so many Washington insiders taken in by the notion that the President only heard of this gambit 2 weeks after the leaker filed his complaint on August 12 after skulking around Washington for almost 3 weeks to assemble the ruse.

I assumed the President knew about the CIA leaker much earlier, as it seems much of Washington did. Heck, if Adam Schiff knew before the complaint was even filed, you know he can't keep a secret.

Also: this proves absolutely nothing. 🤣

The bots were out while I slept! They can't change 3 things:

1) Ukraine Pres Poroshenko pushed his US Embassy to interfere in our election with a US citizen.

2) Poroshenko pals created the Black Ledger and spun it into the US election media.

You couldn't care less about Ukrainian corruption, and you know - again, because you know the country well - that you're blowing smoke on "UA helping Clinton." You just want the focus off Trump's impeachable conduct, because you know what he did and why it's impeachable.

Nobody on the Trump campaign, not one person, thinks the FBI placed spies inside our campaign. Nobody asked this question. Nobody needs this answer. The question which must be answered: what role did these 3 SPIES play?

I've not seen the IG report, but the DOJ-IG likely defines "informant" as "an asset paid by the FBI." If they give information for free, are they just passersby? FBI didn't pay Halper, DoD did. Greenberg likely wanted but didn't get money. Mifsud was just helpful to his CIA pals.

I'm not sure what could be more clear than this. He wasn't dancing around it or mincing words, he literally just says the 6 words "There was spying in my campaign."

> And a lot of people saw that, and a lot of people understand — many, many people understand the situation and want to be open to that situation. Hard to believe it could have happened, but it did. There was spying in my campaign. And his answer was a very accurate one.

The one thing all the talking heads that back Trump on corruption allegations: they never read the reports, they don't read/watch the testimony, and they don't care about the facts when they're not in their favor.

That Michael Caputo @MichaelRCaputo

Replying to @MichaelRCaputo @NatashaBertrand @adamgoldmanNYT

I've not seen the IG report, but the DOJ-IG likely defines "informant" as "an asset paid by the FBI." If they give information for free, are they just passersby? FBI didn't pay Halper, DoD did. Greenberg likely wanted but didn't get money. Mifsud was just helpful to his CIA pals.

You forgot one analysis: Maybe @KellyannePolls and @gtconway3d just love each other more than they differ on politics, setting an example for the rest of us.

How's your marriage? Let's just break that down for the entire world to see. Did Trump break your compass, Casey?

My wife has a Ukrainian masters diploma; UB demanded 36 additional credit hours to grant her a Bachelors degree. You should see some of this coursework, it's gobbledygook & claptrap her Ukrainian profs laugh about.

Meanwhile UB professors "teaching" one class can make $200K. 🙄

Again, I'm trying to cut through the gendered ad hominem to see if you can point to any gossip in that piece. The Conways are public figures who have placed themselves on opposite sides in the biggest political brawl in two decades. If you don't think it's of note, tough.

I have criticisms of GConway but I'd never for a moment presume to analyze their marriage. It's crap commentary and beneath any thinking man.

Tough? 🙄

Having said that, Barrett is a pretty solid reporter. I note this important detail, which he made quite clear.

> The draft, though, is not final. The inspector general has yet to release any conclusions, and The Washington Post has not reviewed Horowitz's entire report, even in draft form. It is also unclear whether Durham has shared the entirety of his findings and evidence with the inspector general or merely answered a specific question.

This is peak contemporary Democrat: overplay the hand, try too hard, hate too much, miss your mark, cross the line, blow the play - ruin the entire day.

Karlan was downright embarrassing. House Dems start at less than zero on Judiciary Day 2. They blew this bigly.

Caleb Hull @CalebJHull

Pamela Karlan apologies for invoking 13 year old Barron Trump during the impeachment hearing, but then immediately shifts to Trump and says he should apologize too.

COINCIDENCE: Devon Archer, a close friend of @JohnKerry's son Chris Heinz, also served on the board at Hunter Biden's sugar shack Burisma Energy. Kerry's former Senate chief of staff served as Burisma's US lobbyist. All while Kerry was Secretary of State. Nothing to see here.

Nothing directly with Burisma per open source info. It was nuts for Hunter to join the company; it'd be completely insane if Chris Heinz did too. However Heinz stayed in business with Hunter/Archer for another year after the Burisma money started flowing into their accounts.

Proud to head back to Iowa tomorrow to campaign with my friend Joe. I'm not endorsing Joe because I've known him for so long, but because I know him so well: he'll be ready on day one to put back together the country and the world that Donald Trump has broken apart.

You forgot to mention that Archer was found guilty of security fraud over Indian tribe bond issue. The jury verdict was overturned by friends of Bill Hill et al Judge Ronnie Abrams. Yes, Floyd's daughter and Dans sister. All wired democrats.

The problem: the Democrats and their conjugal media will never admit their guilt. Ever. They will do a Maidan in DC, pretending it's not their fault. Or worse.

They've lost their humanity.

At the same time, Leiter - who served as John Kerry's chief of staff in the US Senate - signed on as Burisma's lobbyist. He likely made $500K+ in that gig, working for a corrupt company directed by two men in business with Heinz, son of his old boss.

Kerry pulled back from what Biden and Archer were doing -- he didn't become a Burisma Dir. at $83,000 a month, while the other two did. I'm not sure if he was still a part of Rosemont Seneca Partners when they signed the deal in China. At some point, Rosemont Capital pulled out.

I never said anything about the arts. You did. I said employable. If you're damn good at analyzing French literature you can be employed doing it. Or if you're just smart, you can transfer your reading, analytical, and writing skills to many other fields.

Sanders, for instance, would spend $47 billion per year for free universal tuition at any public university or college. Private colleges/unis would see sweeping, pro-consumer borrowing reform. We spend $647 billion per year on the military. We can afford it.

America's uni system must be fundamentally reformed before any look at free tuition. I don't want my taxes to go to one of the most bloated and market inefficient systems in the world.

Government guaranteed loans are just part of the problem. There are many, many more.

Fine maybe it should have said "degrees." Bc a Juilliard degree is great but a 2.7 English lit w/o a teaching certificate from Buff State doesn't seem like a wise use of 4 years. At least its not what I want the government to blindly subsidize—unless you can turn it into a job

I'm very married and public about it but still have females (and males) drop in the DMs from time to time (daily when I was younger) asking me to have sex with them. I had two new ones last week.

At that time there were only high level phone calls re Manafort joining Trump.

Here is my response to all media requests today regarding the DOJ-IG report:

"As I've said for months, our family is waiting for John Durham."

Thank you.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE — Monday, December 9, 2019

Statement of U.S. Attorney John H. Durham

"I have the utmost respect for the mission of the Office of Inspector General and the comprehensive work that went into the report prepared by Mr. Horowitz and his staff. However, our investigation is not limited to developing information from within component parts of the Justice Department. Our investigation has included developing information from other persons and entities, both in the U.S. and outside of the U.S. Based on the evidence collected to date, and while our investigation is ongoing, last month we advised the Inspector General that we do not agree with some of the report's conclusions as to predication and how the FBI case was opened."

Also: I'm not paid for TV appearances. After the Russia hoax, I'm focused on earning to rebuild our finances.

I met a senior FBI agent who was sickened by this from the beginning, he beefed internally over what was going on, decided to leave the bureau after watching CNN televise the fed's bloated raid on Roger Stone. He quit just before retirement, doesn't see how the FBI recovers.

They were in quite a rush.

was met in the applicable circumstance. See CHSPG §§ 19.2 & n.12.

[459] Strzok was promoted to CD Section Chief in February 2016, and later to Deputy Assistant Director (DAD) of CD's Operations Branch I on September 4, 2016.

[460] The one issue Case Agent 1 remembered Strzok weighing in on was how aggressively to task one of the CHSs. Case Agent 1 told the OIG he remembered Strzok voicing concern that the investigative team was using the CHS "too often" and that repeated use of a CHS could possibly raise suspicions. Case Agent 1 told the OIG he disagreed and thought the team should be more aggressive "given the compressed time frame in which we had to operate" but characterized the discussion as "just a normal kind of give and take" that occurs in planning CHS operations.

He fired him for a variety of reasons, but yes, one of those reasons was because Comey attempted to extort Trump using the dossier and bizarrely would not state publicly that which he had assured Trump privately no less than three times: that he was not under investigation.

Charles Eichholz @CharlesEichholz · 13m

Comey tried to extort trump with the dossier? Is that why he and the intel community briefed him on it and said briefings were made public? There's no way he could blackmail him with the dossier.

IMO -- CH was staffed with both Trump haters and Trump fans. Too many agents involved in the various segments for it to be 100% haters. Messages between some happy with election outcome shows that.
But there was another bias in play -- bias towards "the mission". 1/

This is very common in law enforcement -- I was guilty of it when I was a prosecutor. Let me give you an example from the IG report.

That is "bias in favor of the mission". 10/

FBI agents do not get assigned to "investigations" to find out stuff -- in 99% of their work they begin with the default position that the crime has been committed and their mission is to put together the evidence to prove that crime. 12/

shipwreckedcrew @shipwreckedcrew · 2h
That's why CH went on for nearly 10 months without generating any meaningful evidence of a "malign" connection between the Trump campaign and Russian govt' operatives, but they kept up the effort nevertheless. 13/

There was gnashing of teeth when Nunes first released his memo in January, 2018. The press universally crapped on his letter, with a Washington Post piece calling it a "joke" and a "sham." House Speaker Nancy Pelosi slammed Nunes for the release of a "bogus" document, while New York Senator Chuck Schumer said the memo was intended to "sow conspiracy theories and attack the integrity of federal law enforcement." I've learned something in my recent experience. Do you know what precedes a "full investigation?" It's called a preliminary investigation - the work which uncovers the inputs to the "full" designation.

There is nothing an agent can't do in a preliminary investigation which they can do in a full investigation. CHSs. Wires. Data subpoenas. All good.

My attorneys told IG Horowitz of 3 different possible CHS approaches. Two PIs proved Greenberg worked as a paid FBI CHS for 17 years, including copies of his FBI signed informant visas. (Check out the proof at democratdossier.com/dossier/)

IG report doesn't even admit he's theirs.

> In our review, we did not find any evidence that the FBI used CHSs or UCEs to interact with members of the Trump campaign prior to the opening of the Crossfire Hurricane investigation. All of the members of the Crossfire Hurricane team told the OIG that no investigative steps of any type were taken prior to receipt of the predicating information for the Crossfire Hurricane investigation on July 28, 2016, and we found no evidence to the contrary.
> We investigated allegations that the FBI used specific individuals to undertake CHS activities prior to the predication of Crossfire Hurricane. For example, we investigated an allegation that the FBI sent a CHS (known as "Henry Greenberg" by other aliases) to meet with Trump advisors Roger Stone and Michael Caputo in March 2016, to offer to sell derogatory information about Hillary Clinton for $2 million. We found no evidence in the FBI's Delta files or from witness testimony that this individual was acting as an FBI CHS for any purpose in 2016.

The other 2 different possible CHS approaches to me, reported to the IG by my attorneys, are not even mentioned in the IG report.

I suppose the other 2 people who came at me might not have been CHSs but frankly I'm unconvinced.

This is all typical DOJ omission and innuendo.

It's a leftist game: wrap your ideological attacks up into an unassailable spokesperson, feed her nasty soundbites, wag your finger if she's countered.

Every previous president fell silent for this scam. Not this one. It's ugly, but it's a sleazy pitch Trump is willing to hit.

Four facts never change:

1. Trump and Zelensky deny conditionality
2. The transcript shows no quid pro quo
3. Ukraine wasn't aware of delay at the time of the call
4. The aid was ultimately delivered

It's clear to the American people @POTUS did nothing to justify impeachment.

Sure, all those "mistakes" in the FISA process seem intentional. But since those moves sometimes favored Trump, went against him other times, it's solid proof of no bias.

Journalism has vetting standards.
- verifying stories and objectively reporting should be the objective of 'good news'

MSNBC and CNN include 'expert opinion' also, which is annoying, but usually based on well vetted news.

Twisting stories to fit political agenda is corrosive.

This is an honorable message from @JamesAGagliano, who is regularly sincere in his analysis. More newsies should acknowledge Carter's Innocence. Some need to apologize.

Also: who will hire Carter Page? His phone should be ringing off the hook. He deserves his career back.

Stop lying about Ukraine meddling in our 2016 election. It's clear Pres Poroshenko worked with Hillary & the Dems to frame Trump.

Ukraine will investigate the Poroshenko-led interference. Will the US investigate

Also, there's enough evidence to start an investigation into whether @AlexandraChalup advised FusionGPS on info from Ukraine officials and enlisting @Leshchenkos into the Get Trump scheme.

Chalupa was a DNC and Hillary advisor. She made $400K for this - $70K in 2016 alone.

What if I or anyone from the Trump campaign went often to the Russian embassy to seek information on Hillary Clinton?

What if one of us met with a Russian parliament deputy to convince him to reveal and promote a fake ledger of Putin payments to Podesta?

Meet @AlexandraChalup!

5) Will a Senate trial automatically happen?

No!

The Senate can't begin a trial unless the House sends over the articles of impeachment. In short, it is FAR FROM A FAIT ACCOMPLI THAT A SENATE TRIAL WILL HAPPEN as long as the House doesn't send the Senate articles over.

You have to admit it's cunning. It's also rather risky. Trump types wanted a trial to maximize damage in target CDs/states; Beltway Republicans wanted to play it safe and dispense with it quickly. Now every day Nancy delays could be a good day for both Trumpers and Beltway GOP.

Based on his DOJ oversight authority vested in him as the Executive, independent of judicial action on the same question, he thereby orders all pending prosecutions to be abandoned by DOJ, and all persons who have suffered a conviction are pardoned. Do it all at one time.

He would not have to justify the pardons in the normal sense -- he could justify the pardons on the simple basis that the misconduct of the FBI and DOJ -- across an entire front of activity --- "shocks the conscience" as that phrase is interpreted in the case law.

We all know Trump is unapologetic, but Trump was elected to drain the swamp (no easy task) not go on an apology tour like his predecessor.

I've been impressed with Cruz in the Trump era. He seems to have moved on with a positive outlook and is policy focused. He'll stick with the President. I'm a Cruz convert.

Rubio is another story.

So @seanmdav , you did use that phrase. Wow. Is that your own invention, or does that insult come from some sub-culture of which Im unaware? Does your mom watch your tv performances? (Even Tucker didnt seem amused.)

On Monday, after the report was released, you went even further, disparaging the conclusions the OIG reached and publicly disagreeing with an independent, legitimate inquiry, claiming the investigation was "intrusive" and the facts "insufficient to justify steps taken" by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

Mr. Barr, you even went so far as to suggest during an interview on Tuesday December 10 that the FBI under the Obama administration was a greater threat to our democracy than Russia. Your unsubstantiated and inappropriate statements on the OIG report legitimize fringe conspiracy theories and erode public trust in the Justice Department's credibility.

In 2018, @MichaelRCaputo believed he knew who the @nytimes anonymous Trump official was and during an appearance on @CNN, he said "she" multiple times. So Michael, do you still think it is a she? That list from 2018 for who remains and female is very short.

Solid story on @joshrogin's #fakenews for #NeverTrump operatives claiming Trump staffer changed GOP platform for Putin. Wrote Trump visited Ukraine 9/15.

- He knows there was no Ukraine trip. Never fixed it.
- He killed JD Gordon's career, doesn't care.

Very interesting. Did Vivadelli use the Italian words for “crazy expenses” or English in your interview? I notice this unique phrase appears in all accounts of Mifsud and Agrigento.

I don’t think it’s an Italian legal term. It sounds like a developed & shared phrase - a script?

Yeah. It was wrong but I doubt Obama was in on that particular thing. Charlie is making it sound like Obama ordered it when it was clear Chalupa was hustling this on her own working with DWS. I think Podesta probably was nervous about this line of investigation.

I don't agree with this reading. He's never been particularly courageous; always blindly loyal to the neo-con/intel faction of the deep state (e.g. Syria, Libya, his dreams to invade Venezuela and start a war with Iran).

Nevertheless, I too dream of a @mattgaetz primary.

This is dishonest agenda-driven reporting by @gregpmiller and @GregJaffe. They paint Soros as some kind of victim-hero but he's quite the opposite. And they know it.

> A billionaire financier and Holocaust survivor, Soros has used his fortune to fight the spread of authoritarianism and bigotry. He has also become associated with a "globalist" agenda opposed by many on the right, and his name is frequently invoked in anti-Semitic slurs.

It took @HouseDemocrats 9 days to come up with this weak and inaccurate video defense of their impeachment scam. They were on vacation the whole time, and this is the best they could do.

9 days, for this slop. @TheDemocrats are in disarray.

This liberal reporter's story is chock full of progressive shot calling, like this indolent yap back curated to shut down all criticism of billionaire George Soros.

> Mona Fishman, a singer from the Las Vegas area who performed at the event, has written Trump-themed songs with titles like "Fake News" and "Smells like Soros," which accuses liberal megadonor George Soros of running a shadow government, a trope widely condemned as anti-Semitic.

I have some questions about Ukraine. You should too.

Like: why didn't Burisma owner Zlochesky ever land on the sanctions list?

Other escaped Yanukovych oligarchs were sanctioned in 2014. How did he slip away?

Hunter Biden joined the Burisma board in 2014.

Pure coincidence.

Biden told Ukraine Pres Poroshenko he'd stop $1B energy aid if he didn't fire the top investigator on Burisma - $2B was already sent. How much of that went to Hunter's employer, the largest natural gas company? We don't know.

Why are USG types telling Ukraine not to investigate?

Another question: what did Joe Biden and Devon Archer discuss in their West Wing meeting in April 16, 2014? It was the same day the U.K. SFO announced the Burisma asset freeze and just days before Hunter was added to the board. Another coincidence?

In 2016 Ukraine's top prosecutor began confiscating houses, luxury cars etc from Burisma's Zlochevsky. His most active case.

Within days, Biden was on the phone to Poroshenko urging his termination. Several times.

Only then was Shokin fired.

Was the timing just a coincidence?

Oh I'm sure they're insured. But a nuisance fee isn't a sizable settlement and Jon is saying he got a small amount. I'd like to know.

I doubt it was $1mm. This case had dubious legal merit. I think Mr. Sandmann has a colorable claim against Nathan Philipps for false light. I don't think his claims against any of these media orgs are viable. They are in fact calculated to settle for a nuisance fee.

doing and they should be helping you more than they are. Germany does almost nothing for you. All they do is talk and I think it's something that you should really ask them about. When I was speaking to Angela Merkel she talks Ukraine, but she doesn't do anything. A lot of the European countries are the same way so I think it's something you want to look at but the United States has been very very good to Ukraine. I wouldn't say that it's reciprocal necessarily because things are happening that are not good but the United States has been very very good to Ukraine.

Whether it was on purpose or an accident, it would not have happened had Trump not assassinated Soleimani. I have no tears to shed for that guy he was just a brutal version of trump. But it was an assassination and that means something. To try to sugar coat this is embarrassing

Also: if Obama hadn't sent a pallet of unmarked euros, Iran wouldn't be so deeply invested in Iraqi militias which followed their orders to attack US territory

See how that works? We could go on all day because your agreement with the Iranian mullahs is fatally flawed.

FACTS: Maple Leaf CEO McCain is responsible for the deaths of dozens of his customers, Obama is responsible for leaving 4 Americans to die alone, and Trump is responsible for killing the #1 (and #2) terrorists on the planet. That's gotta suck for you haters, I know. I mean, ouch.

Nope. But you're clearly still upset Trump handled an attack on a US embassy with leadership and strength and further exposed your beta god Obama as a feckless boob who allowed an attack on our territory in Benghazi, failed to protect American citizens and then lied about it.

Um, the corruption at Burisma left when Zlochevsky fled Ukraine with Viktor Yanukovych, Manafort's former boss. Biden wasn't even with the company when it was under investigation, and Burisma is a private, not government, firm, so FARA wouldn't apply here.

This is long planned. Putin hits term limit again in 2024; his prime minister will replace him for one term so he can run again in 2028. Medvedev did this once before, maybe he's not keen to do it again. He goes now so Putin can pick/train a new PM to be temp president in 2024.

Meanwhile, VV Putin serves as prime minister and never stops running the show. Recall Medvedev telling Obama he still had to report to his PM, Vladimir. This is why so many Russians emigrated out after Putin got re-presidented in 2012. They know he will never really leave.

That the president would say an ambassador, surveilled by thugs hired by her own government, "is going to go through some things..." that's chilling. And not normal.

Schiff reiterates: "The whole purpose of the president's scheme was interfering in the election." ... Lost in the wash of details in all this, and worth reminding: The fundamental goal of an impeachment is removal of the president

This drains the founders concept of impeachment of all intended meaning. Today, it's just another election campaign tactic. And now, we can get to the bottom of Dem-Ukraine election interference conspiracy and the Bidens' enrichment and FARA crimes. Who'll have to testify?

I'm merely trying to figure out how you came to the conclusion that this is normal in the diplomatic corps.
That the president would say an ambassador, surveilled by thugs hired by her own government, "is going to go through some things..." that's chilling. And not normal.

It would be stunning if this became the norm. Altho seems equally amazing that this is now on a cycle of every 20 years (give or take) - tho, worth noting Mueller probe didn't officially trigger this, was an entirely new scandal, Ukraine, which did it

Impeachment was the ultimate goal of Russia Russia Russia but they failed. They also took too long fail. The Ciaramella complaint was ginned up hastily; it was all they had. The obstruction allegation, a total loser in court, was just an homage to their doddering god Bob Mueller.

Kerry family pal Devon Archer and Hunter Biden both served on the Burisma board. Several visits and many calls indicate lobbying activity in the US for Burisma and its oligarch Zlochevsky.

Neither registered with FARA as foreign agents. Paul Manafort is serving time for this.

Kerry family pal Devon Archer and Hunter Biden both served on the Burisma board. Several visits and many calls indicate lobbying activity in the US for Burisma and its oligarch Zlochevsky.

Neither registered with FARA as foreign agents. Paul Manafort is serving time for this.

Since Poroshenko stands accused of massive corruption and he interfered in the 2016 US election, American Normals can see why Zelensky, a fine man, might be more interested in exposing the Biden scam and Poroshenko interference.

But no. Let's just promote Democrat spin. 😕

Sciutto knows that if Trump spoke with Poroshenko about Biden, it would predate Biden's candidacy by MONTHS. This essentially invalidates the 2020/Political Rival narrative of the Impeachment Article. So he is doing gymnastics here. @MichaelRCaputo @DevinNunes @dbongino

FACT: Corrupt Ex-President Poroshenko worked with Americans and used Ukraine state resources to interfere in the 2016 US election in Kyiv and Washington.

This is proven and undeniable.

You personally lit the flames of the bogus Russia hoax which burned 50 families to the ground. Children suffered because of you. Do you have children? Do you care? Do you know what happened to my children because of your dead wrong reporting? You should resign and wait tables.

I believe he's referring to Naftogaz of Ukraine, one of the 3 biggest companies in the country. By the way, Joe Biden's senior energy advisor serves on the Naftogaz board of directors.

Why are so many people in the Biden orbit working at Ukraine energy companies?

The Mumbler. I remember sitting in a CNN green room, watching Lieu pace back and forth, mumbling to himself.

"What's this?" I asked a CNN regular who was set to appear on the show with me.

"He's practicing his lines," she rolled her eyes.

We both had a laugh at The Mumbler.

For years I've trained CEOs and politicians on TV appearances. It's hard work and you need to prepare.

But I tell them don't practice memorization in front of others, especially other guests.

It just makes you look really stupid. Combine that with de-rhotacism and you get Lieu.

Impeachment has been about the Pelosi-Biden relationship from the beginning.

Bill Mitchell @mitchellvii
Is it a coincidence that Pelosi delayed the Impeachment Articles just long enough so that Bernie and Warren would be pulled off the Campaign Trail right before Iowa for the Senate Trial, giving Biden free reign to campaign alone in the state?...

Speaking as a sentient human being, his thinking That Alan Deshowitz and Ken Starr need weeks to prepare a fight against simpleton overhyped articles is deeply amusing.

No doubt he's a brilliant legal scholar, but he seems to be on the fringe when it comes to his Constitutional argument that abuse of power isn't an impeachable offense. Hamilton specifically said impeachment was intended for "abuse or violation of some public trust."

It's not right to "blame" Soros. He's funding the advancement of causes and interests that are important to him. But it's a different question to say you can't consider the bias of Soros and his followers in evaluating the credibility of what their efforts produce.

The more these #FakeNews organizations like NBC lie about the American people the more the American people are turning against them. This kind of propaganda tactic is straight out of the old Soviet Union. It is fundamentally un-American.

Copernicus was an astronomer & mathematician.
FEMA's been screwing up relief distribution since Katrina. They didn't fix the lack of key supplies on PR before the storm, challenge with delivering emergency supplies & failed to track supplies to the island & through distribution.

I'd love to see Sanders v Bernie. It's an ideological divide worth testing with the American people. The other likely Dem nominees just aren't honest about their plans for America.

Also I think we'd win the matchup while stomping the guts out of socialism so it's twice as fun.

What happened to Chuck Ross? Used to be the guy who would wait a story out and dive deep in analysis. Now just parroting what his DC bar buddies are talking about, attributing "his reason" to an audio tape that "appears" to say things. Very lazy lately Chuck!

I didn't see where he claimed the President needs a reason to recall an ambassador.

Every former ambassador since our founding was removed by a phone call, email or telegram from POTUS saying essentially, "Get rid of her." Breathlessly reporting this call as if it's some sort of smoking gun only spins up the fraudulent claim that Trump did something wrong.

Bloomberg will ignore Democrat party orthodoxy and be the first one to take Hunter shots at Biden, lighting him on fire.

If Bloomberg isn't happy with his early returns (where he competes) he will know his only path to the White House goes through Ukraine.

But he doesn't win.

Nope. Not one Trump aide has expressed shock or fear. I've spoken to people on the President's impeachment team and they're elated, expect the trial to end midweek. This is a bust.

Gabriel Sherman @gabrielsherman
Fear over impeachment grows in Trumpworld. Sources close to Trump legal team shocked by how powerful Dem arguments have been. My latest: vanityfair.com/news/2020/01/t...

The statement released this morning by @SecPompeo attacking @NPRKelly is a shameful assault on #PressFreedom. Americans deserve a Secretary of State, that is diplomatic, can answer foreign policy questions

There was no agreement. Your statement about how few reporters would break one only makes the point.

It appears the Secretary of State of the United States of America disagrees with you. Maybe take that up with this top cabinet member of the President of the United States of America.

Or just on Twitter. Your call.

I agree with your first two sentences. But Ms. Kelly says she never agreed to 'off the record'. Why would she? I wouldn't have in that circumstance. Also, today Ms. Kelly provided emails showing she clearly told the Secretary's staff that she was going to ask about Ukraine.

I speak with reporters off the record often, even at WGRZ. A cabinet secretary and his staff does it more often and, with natsec concerns, in clear circumstances. When on/off record goes wrong, it can get ugly. When a reporter does it intentionally for revenge, it's far worse.

Does Hunter Biden have criminal liability for taking the Burisma gig or the Chinese investment money?

Replying to @whitforreal

Hunter's US criminal liability begins with secret unregistered lobbying of US cabinet secretaries for Burisma and his Ukrainian oligarch boss. Manafort is serving years in prison for a fraction of Hunter's FARA crimes.

FARA charges will expose financial crimes, like Manafort.

They didn't subpoena after Bolton's attorney said he would fight it in court. Fair to argue they should have pursued that (along with subpoenas for all other admin. officials who refused to testify). But they did ask Bolton to testify. Not sure why POTUS tweeted the falsehood.

That Michael Caputo @MichaelRCaputo · 6h

He's clearly conflating "ask" and "subpoena." Since the White House made it clear subpoenas were necessary for any invitation, calling the President a liar on this is hair splitting.

They didn't subpoena because they'd lose in court and delay this 100% election focused gambit.

Again, fair point to say Dems should have taken subpoena case to court. They didn't because it's long process. White House lost with McGahn by the way. Haven't seen many legal experts say absolute immunity is a legit defense. Point here is POTUS said they "didn't even ask".....

I staffed Biden on every Ukraine call, mtg & trip from fall 2014-2017. I sat in the Oval & SitRoom & coordinated w/State. Everything he did was to advance US policy alongside our allies, internat'l institutions & Ukrainian reformers. No amount of Trump spin changes those facts.

The Trump admin has had access to all OFAC records for 3 years. If there were anything to it, it would have been shouted from the mountaintops already and they wouldn't have to resort to making things up.

In your theory, the Trump administration has access to all DoJ, FBI etc records too. Of course, the department is withholding information from Congress and the White House. DoT is no different.

So, no. You're wrong again. This is how government should work, but it doesn't.

Actually, no. Trump admin does have access to all DoJ, FBI (part of DoJ btw), Treasury records, since they are executive branch agencies. They are withholding from Congress, not WH. Secretaries of those agencies are all Trump appointees.

Plus which, Repubs have every opportunity over the last 5 years to add Burisma to the sanctions list. They haven't.

This was not a Congressional inquiry, it was a White House inquiry. Congress never cared about Hunter's get-rich-quick scheme. And, as you know, most of Washington just learned of the Biden-Burisma corruption in mid 2019. So, nice theory. Not real.

I certainly knew about the Biden scam in 2014, and talked about it on air. But it wasn't a topic anybody in Congress felt was a priority since the grift wasn't new.

You're entertaining but I've grown bored with your tired talking points.

This is Democrat spin.

1/ Shokin confiscated millions in property from Hunter's billionaire Burisma boss. VP Biden was on the phone demanding his ouster days later.

This action also implicated Hunter/Archer in felony unregistered lobbying.

Feb. 2016: “Court seizes property of ex-minister Zlochevsky in Ukraine”

No. Genl Prosecutor Shokin seized assets from Hunter’s boss 2/4/16. Right after the seizures Biden began a flurry of calls to Poroshenko demanding his removal. PP asked for resignation 2/16, got it 2/19.

The probe was active & despite US protests outside his office, continuing.

Again, the timeline can demonstrate that the probe was dormant until Joe Biden’s call for Shokin to step down because he was corrupt/feckless.

This Dec 15 I. 2015 NYT article indicates Shokin was NOT investigating Burisma

So the contemporaneous record of 2015 shows Shokin wasn't investigating Burisma (& ergo Hunter) when Joe Biden 1st put pressure on Ukraine. Shokin, internationally viewed as corrupt, now says it was due to Burisma in a new claim made in the case of a wanted Putin-tied oligarch 2016 began with a White House demand that Burisma case be dropped, Shokin refusing and him being taken out by Biden-Kerry after illegal Archer-Hunter lobbying.

The NYT was wrong on this. Burisma was active, Shokin was determined after the UKSFO requests were unanswered and when became PG and moved on Burisma.

Burisma was literally the most active investigation in his office. Biden et al are lying. And his son violated US federal law.

NABU was set up by Rada law in late 2014 but wasn't staffed until late 2015. It's not widely respected; many law-and-order types in Ukraine view this US-EU-IMF creation as a violation of their constitution. The director has admitted that he interfered in the 2016 US elections.

(Again the seizure came before his ouster. Shokin confiscated Hunter's boss's assets 2/4, resigned 2/19, left 3/29.)

Today marks the end of January but for many Puerto Ricans it's New Year's Eve. After a month of feeling earthquakes nearly every day, Puerto Rican's (who are meme masters) want to cancel January & start anew. A movie theatre in PR even offered New Year discounts today. HNY!

In Puerto Rico today, people are celebrating the end of January as if its another new year's eve. And with memes. It's been a long, tough month.

Perfect comparison.

✅ Bloomberg spends 300M gets maybe 3 points

✅ Trump spends 300M and wins

So who can get more done? The guy who can't get over 10% or the guy who can win for 300M?

I thought it was getting more done for less. 🤔

History will write that @RudyGiuliani was a hero of an inevitable impeachment. By keeping Mueller away from Trump, Rudy avoided a Clintonesque false statement trial. As a result, there was no special counsel report backing a criminal impeachment article.

No crime = acquittal.

I don't think there is any timeline where Rudy ends up looking like a hero. Mueller was always in the tank for the GOP. He didn't even interview Don Jr or look at the financials. The only reason the Ukraine stuff even came to light is because of what a dumbass Rudy is...

Polling is often cynical and fixed, designed to provide the results the sponsor needs. We know this from 2016.

When they get caught like this, it's profoundly hilarious. Note the pollster; discount all future results.

4 is the correct answer, but you got that wrong in your #fakenews RNCinCLE platform story that ruined lives. It's STILL wrong there.

The fact is, you know as much about Ukraine as you did about the 2016 GOP platform.

NOTHING. ZERO. ZIP. NADA. NICHIVO.

Classic Trump strategy: the comment. The Dem/media faux outrage. The coverage. The Bloomberg reaction. The media resonance - you all give him incredible free media.

Trump takes all the media oxygen he can in 22 seconds, suffocating opponents. (And in the end MRB will use a box.)

Does "dropping in polls" mean steady and/or rising in both Iowa and Nationwide according to both Real Clear & 538 polls?? Karl Rove who actually knows polls says there won't be any clear winner in Iowa. Biden (like Reagan, Bush, Clinton, GWB, Obama & Trump) will WIN SC big time.

I'm not involved in #NY11 but I can get involved if you want me to. I know the district quite well. I also know @NMalliotakis, @seanspicer. We're all good.

Video evidence of House Dems backing impeachment before Ukraine plot was exposed

House Democrats might have rebutted this by including the other earlier alleged grounds for impeachment in this case -- like arguing 'yes we were right then and this impeachment is also about that earlier obstruction' etc, but they went for the 'narrow' case.

I like this. Bloomberg is such a joke. For all of his faults of which there are many, people GIVE trumps campaign money because they like him. No one will donate to Bloomberg. No one. No one. It's a joke he's in the next DNC debate.

Even if you believe biased Politifact, you'd have to be really foolish to think $2.1 billion is a good price for a Web site. The President is right: it should have cost 2% of the Democrat-spun number.

PolitiFact article is quite thorough. If the President had simply said we paid A LOT for the website, he'd be right. But he gave a totally false number (exaggerated by 150% if you go with the $2.1B figure, which includes a lot of non-website costs). You can't think that's ok.

Biggest story out of last night wasn't Dems screwing up their own caucus, it was the low voter turnout. Doesn't appear they came close to Obama 2008 levels. Bad omen for Dems.

Pelosi demolished decades of tradition in this ill-considered, ill-tempered moment. Many will celebrate her conduct and be thrilled by the insults. However, if she cannot apologize and maintain this tradition, Pelosi should resign as Speaker.

That was an extremely effective speech. It stuck to Trump's strongest points, set traps for his opponents who were easily baited into them, offered viewers powerful moments, and made for incredible reality TV.

And the few state races that happened in 2019.

Republicans have lost more races since Trump became President than any other time in our history.

If you believe that, let's put money on this. I'll bet you $25 Republicans hold the Senate, $50 we retake the House, and $100 Trump gets re-elected. $100 bonus to whoever wins all 3.

How does your script say you should respond to a put-your-money-where-your-mouth-is challenge?

Mitt knew Trump wouldn't be convicted, so he stuck a knife in the President for spite. This should be a lesson for anyone tempted to cozy up to neocons and never trumpers.

Hi @BrandyZadrozny - any comment on the actual news out on CBS Denver? Since the mother did administer Tamiflu, do you think your story gets your company sued? Will the mom you defamed sue you?

These are real questions for real reporters.

A 4-year-old in Colorado died from flu this week. Days before, his mom reached out to Facebook's biggest anti-vaxx group. Members told her not to take the Tamiflu a doctor had prescribed, but give him oils and elderberries and put potatoes in his socks. nbcnews.com/tech/social-me...

Joe Biden held a 9/17/87 damage control press conference in the US Capitol; I attended. It was the best crisis communications lesson I ever learned. I stood there knowing he was flaming out. I could hear the panic in his voice, as reporters could. He dropped out 5 days later. 4/6

Some lessons from Biden 1987 might inform Biden 2020 expectations: He'll address his campaign failures head on; we'll hear the panic in his voice. He'll drop out suddenly after merciless media sabotage by a Democrat competitor. And, like Dukakis, that candidate will deny it. 5/6

We'll all be surprised by how rapidly Biden tries to drop completely out of sight after dropping out of the race. Of course there will be that little problem of Ukraine investigations to tend to. I know a lot about that, and I reveal it in my new book. 6/6

As @NedPrice knows, Pres Obama more than doubled NSC headcount to over 300. At one point, Obama had hired so many young, inexperienced staffers that he brought the average age at the NSC to 27 years old.

Obama didn't downsize the NSC. He designed it to spy on his successor.

This is how Joe Biden burns down. In Sep 1987 he insulted at least one voter a day for asking him about his plagiarism habits.

That lasted about a week, then he dropped out.

Marc Caputo @MarcACaputo
It was only a matter of time before a candidate broke out the obscure John Wayne references & jokingly accused someone at a town hall of being a "lying, dog-faced pony soldier" in New Hampshire...

Can you believe it? 🤣

If a GOP candidate called a woman "dog faced" he would be run out of the race on a rail by a chorus of Democrat conjugal media.

Biden gets a pass on this for the same reason Northam and Trudeau get to wear blackface - they're all hypocrites.

The legal bills are suffocating but the opportunity costs can be worse. Clients and jobs lost. Careers stalled or killed. Kids college funds gone.

I know one family where the dad and mom were both fired and their bank accounts were locked as college tuitions were due. Wiped out.

The end has come for persecuting Trump associates. The Dems via this impeachment sham have played their hand publically and exposed themselves and the intelligence agencies involved. Time for Trump to clean house and take control.

My guess on Stone. Court probably comes in around 5-6 years. And Stone doesn't do 10 days in custody past his sentencing date. Trump will commute his sentence and point to the investigative abuses of CH - without which Stone would have never been in jeopardy to start with.

I've had a chance now to skim through the filing. As I suspected, the "Guidleline" range being suggested by the Gov't is not what Probation has recommended--at least the Govt doesn't say anywhere they are asking the court to follow the Prob. officer's recommendation in the PSR.

Please @realDonaldTrump don't allow this. Stone was targeted by dirty cops because despite all their illegal efforts they failed to frame you. The Stone family has been destroyed for a 30 year friendship with the Trumps.

By imprisoning #RogerStone, they think they imprison you.

That's not what got him elected, and he is taking it so far that it's cringe-inducing groveling. And he doesn't believe it, which you can tell from his own remarks about drug offenses yesterday, despite signing the odious Jared-Kardashian soft on crime bill.

And again, that audio clip shows why Bloomberg was such an effective and popular mayor. He is just telling the harsh truth (and Trump knows it's true).

This is what really sickens me about the Manafort case. Mueller and his team wanted to throw a non violent 70 year old man at Rikers Island. Just like they want Roger Stone in prison for nearly 10 years. This is not justice. This is tyranny.

I'm hearing that DOJ/Barr/Durham are very curious as to why @LouiseMensch, @TheRickWilson, and others in their cabal were leaked now debunked dossier intel before the 2016 election, and more interested in who leaked and possibly paid them.

This might get very interesting.

My FISA warrant story was completely accurate. Barr and Durham know that.
And as Durham's mission is to try and "fruit of the poisoned tree" everything, he needs to get into my report about the first FISA warrant on the two Russian banks.

Aaron Zelinsky was both a douchebag and a horrible attorney. His face telegraphs his every move.

I've never seen such an amateurish opening argument as the one he gave at the Stone trial.

He's incredibly untalented. But he makes up for that with a total lack of personality.

After Trump falsely accused the Central Park 5 of rape and paid the New York Times to publicly call for their brutal executions, some of them spent up to 15 years behind bars for a crime they never even committed. And Trump still thinks they are guilty. No remorse.

Mueller hack Aaron Zelinsky set a failed 2018 perjury trap for me and filed a bogus 2019 court order to forbid Roger Stone from contacting me.

He chased down a St Louis house painter, dragged him to DC for nothing.

He screamed in a female attorney's face: "I AM THE GOVERNMENT!"

Biden may drop out of the 2020 race but his son will be prosecuted for huge FARA violations. Manafort is serving time, yet never lobbied - Hunter Biden lobbied cabinet officers, their deputies.

This is all in my book - and here's the trailer for the film:

Hunter Biden "will be prosecuted for huge FARA violations"? Won't happen @MichaelRCaputo. DOJ for now gave McCabe a pass on bigger stuff and they gave Tony Podesty a pass despite Manafort sitting in part for things that Tony helped him do.

Vaguely surprised this didn't exist yet. Interesting timing.

STONE FRIENDS ESTABLISH PARDON OUTREACH COMMITTEE

120,000 Americans signed petition asking President Trump to pardon Stone

(BUFFALO, NY) – Michael Caputo, former campaign advisor to President Donald J. Trump and longtime friend of Roger Stone, announced today the founding of a committee to encourage the President to pardon his longtime aide. Stone is set to be sentenced on February 20, 2020 – a controversial proceeding that led to yesterday's resignation of the entire Stone prosecution team.

Stone has described Caputo as his "protégé." Caputo and Stone met in the mid-1980s when Caputo worked at Stone's lobbying firm, Black, Manafort, and Stone, as Stone's driver. In 2015, Stone brought Caputo on with him to serve in the nascent days of Trump's presidential run.

Michael Caputo, former Trump campaign aide and Roger Stone's best friend and protege, just launched "Pardon Roger J. Stone Committee" on behalf of Stone's friends and says it's preparing to work with Trump and the WH "if the opportunity arises for presidential clemency."

I submitted a 144 page file on Oknyansky including this affidavit to USA Durham in 2019. Mueller OSC knew everything yet omitted all of it in their final report. They also had data proving I did not attend the Miami meeting but wrote in the report that they did not know. Liars.

True. You're not one. I am. So stay in your lane. The top of sentencing is 20 years. Stone showed no remorse and forced a trial. He gets no consideration. 7-9 is reasonable. Judge Jackson will ensure justice is done, even if, as usual, @realDonaldTrump chooses to undo it.

Sometimes Twitter is a toxic place. In fact, it's the only current aspect of my life that brings toxicity and negativity into my day to day life. Not everyone in the world will like me or agree with me and that's what makes the world a great place.

@hartformemphis ran for Congress and lost. The Democrat got called for jury duty and found out it was the Roger Stone trial.

I heard her tell the judge she'd probably run again someday.

She lied to get on the jury, then leveraged Stone's life for her political aspirations.

And the ultimate outcome of it all... wait for it.... Zlochevsky and the other owners were allowed to keep their ill-gotten gains from raiding the Ukraine's natural resources and the US's assistance funds. Weird how the new "non-corrupt" prosecutor didn't take care of that.

Trump should not pardon Stone. This was the trap they set. They recommended the cray sentencing to force Trump to pardon Stone so they can resurrect the Russia Hoax. They want to be able to point and say Trump rewarded silence to cover up a crime. Another impeachment attempt.

Trump's tweets are shining a light on the two-tiered "justice" in our country. As president, Trump has the right and duty to point out any concerns to the people & DOJ. Barr seems flustered by the reaction of the media and Democrats--if so, he needs to put on some big boy pants.

I'm sure Pres Trump's tweets make many DC jobs harder. It's not the first time he's heard this, I promise you - I can't imagine he'd be angry with AG Barr for his comment. It's just not news.

Trump and Barr are totally on the same page. It's like Obama and AG Holder, only legal.

I really hope we're not backing AG Barr for no reason, because while I have faith in him and Durham, DOJ dropping the criminal case on McCabe's 2018 OIG referral is incredibly demoralizing to the base.

@realDonaldTrump and his appointees need to show Americans equal justice.

Politico speculates that a DC grand jury refused to indict Andrew McCabe

Democrats in this town have structural privilege

By JOSH GERSTEIN
02/14/2020 12:27 PM EST
Updated: 02/14/2020 03:13 PM EST

The Justice Department has decided to abandon its efforts to seek criminal charges against former FBI Deputy Director Andrew McCabe, according to a letter sent to his attorneys.

McCabe's lawyers were told last September that he should expect to be indicted on charges stemming from inaccurate statements he made to FBI investigators about his actions around the time of the 2016 election. However, no indictment was ever returned, leading to speculation that the Washington-based grand jury probing the matter took the rare step of rejecting charges.

Telvock is an unstable activist, not a reporter. @news4buffalo knows this, as he's frequently quietly banned from events. He'll never set foot in one of mine.

As a blogger Telvock was denied an interview because he's an activist. He reacted by banging on an office door for 15 minutes, whining like a toddler princess. He's an oddball, uncomfortable in his own skin, a goof on camera.

He's the lowest paid producer at CH4 for a reason.

Chief District Judge in DC Beryl Howell is an end of term Obama appointee who oversaw the Mueller grand jury proceedings.

She's not going to allow anything to happen to those who partook in the coup. Especially lynchpin McCabe.

Aw. You're afraid of @N_Baldassarre. I think that's precious.

But you should fear her. She'll clean Nate's clock again, defeat him all the way from Washington (where Nate will never be)....

No, but we have a new trial and pardon coming up. Your favorite lying juror will be a fun feature.

You, however, have another defeat in NY27 coming up. This one will be profound. Want to lose another bet on it?

Or will you welch on that bet too? 😂

Spicer & Co will be great! Everywhere Sean goes is an episode of Spicer & Co. Now we all get to watch.

Looking forward to it. Been meaning to pick up @Newsmax on my Roku. Enough procrastinating!

Sean Spicer @seanspicer

Some big personal news!

I excited to announce that I will be hosting a new show at 6pm on Newsmax TV.

Jazz

For other uses, see Jazz (disambiguation).

Jazz is a music genre that originated in the African-American communities of New Orleans, United States.[1] It originated in the late 19th and early 20th centuries, and developed from roots in blues and ragtime.[2] Jazz is seen by many as "America's classical music".[3] Since the 1920s Jazz Age, jazz has become recognized as a major form of musical expression. It then emerged in the form of independent traditional and popular musical styles, all linked by the common bonds of African-American and European-American musical parentage with a performance orientation.[4] Jazz is characterized by swing and blue notes, call and response vocals, polyrhythms and improvisation. Jazz has roots in West African cultural and musical expression, and in African-American music traditions including blues and ragtime, as well as European military band music.[5] Intellectuals around the world have hailed jazz as "one of America's original art forms".[6]

She makes the ultimate decision. Stone will get at least 5 years, but I would really like to see him get pounded with 9, 10 or maybe even 12 years.

You heard of him? Maybe? He goes on CNN and yells. Ya know, that bizarre little man who defends Roger Stone and would be honored to apply bronzer to Trump?

He supports my opponent.

That alone has got to get me 20,000 votes...

In 2013, Hunter Biden arranged a meeting for USGLC's president and the incoming chief of staff for John Kerry.

The next year, Hunter joined Burisma. USGLC, which lobbies for increases to the international aid budget, added Ukraine-related issues to its lobbying list.

Why do we need investigations into Ukraine crimes? Example 1: @DuncRossDC broke a story 11/19/19 that exposed an unsigned May 2016 memo to Democrat-Clinton oppo firm FusionGPS telling them to use @Leshchenkos to get out damning info on Manafort. 1/6 https://dailycaller.com/2019/11/19/fusion-gps-serhiy-leshchenko-ohr/ …

2. Michael R. Caputo Verified account @MichaelRCaputo Feb/1

We know from Russia investigators that FusionGPS's Nellie Ohr, wife of FBI Trump investigator Bruce Ohr, worked with @Leshchenkos, a member of the Ukraine parliament very close to Ukraine Pres Poroshenko, to frame Trump. 2/6 https://dailycaller.com/2019/02/06/nellie-ohr-fusion-gps-leshchenko-ukraine/ …

After the FusionGPS memo, on 5/31/16 @Leshchenkos held a presser on a "Black Ledger" showing cash payments by former Ukraine Pres Yanukovych. He held another presser 8/14/16 accusing Trump chair Paul Manafort of payments in the ledger. Manafort quit. 3/6 https://www.nytimes.com/2016/08/15/us/politics/what-is-the-black-ledger.html …

4. Michael R. Caputo Verified account @MichaelRCaputo Feb/1

Manafort's resignation from the Trump campaign was expected to roil the president's effort. It didn't. He went on to win against all odds. Today we know the "Black Ledger" is kompromat - a fake document designed to destroy Trump. 4/6 https://justthenews.com/key-witness-told-team-mueller-russia-collusion-evidence-found.html …

But who wrote the unsigned 5/16 memo to FusionGPS telling them to work with @Leshchenkos? I believe it's @AlexandraChalup, it could be an Obama official but clearly FusionGPS knows. They won't talk. Only federal investigators can find out for sure. 5/6 #InvestigateUkraineCrimes

This is all in my book "The Ukraine Hoax" with Bombadier Books. Ukraine wants to investigate but the US Embassy is stopping them. If we do not investigate 2016 Interference and Biden-Burisma, America will prove to be more corrupt than Ukraine. 6/6 http://TheUkraineHoax.com

Of course, you spread conspiracy basing on your partisan ideas and therefore you contributed to murder's justification . Sure, no grass roots protest was possible in Ukraine, the undernation, etc. This is all Obama. Continue to marginalize the Republicans, you're doing well

Your father committed crimes. He lied to the FBI. He was convicted. He's a crook. Trump may pardon him, but he'll still have to admit that he was a crook in order to be pardoned. I don't judge a daughter defending her father but, he's guilty.

Tell him to quit committing crimes and monkeying around with Trump. If he had not done that, he wouldn't be facing prison. What did Trump do to ordinary patriots who were subpoenaed and told the truth? He fired them. Roger enabled him. He may get a pardon but still a criminii.

As "Juror 1261," Tomeka Hart was asked to sit in objective judgment of Roger Stone in federal court. "Objective," however, was likely the last word one would use to describe her views.

Hart now represents the basis for a peremptory challenge over jury bias:

#RogerStone #MAGA

> Jonathan Turley @JonathanTurley
> It certainly seems Hart had no place on the Stone jury. The Supreme Court has repeatedly declared that the "minimal standards of due process" demand "a panel of impartial, indifferent jurors." Hart's record suggests little that is impartial or indifferent. thehill.com/opinion/crimin...

@rachelweinerwp Is this passage in your story false, or did I miss the demonstrable proof that Trump's tweets came before Barr's actions? (I may have.)

WAPO: washingtonpost.com/politics/trump …

> "It was only a week ago that Trump's tweet about federal prosecutors' recommendation that Stone should be sentenced to seven to nine years in prison sent the Justice Department into a tailspin. After that tweet, Barr moved to intervene and lower the recommendation."

Here is @realDonaldTrump on radio show 8 YEARS AGO talking about Rod Blagojevich's sentence.

"It's a very very stiff sentence...I think 14 years is far too much for what he did."

After what you and your family have been through I can't protest. All I can say is sometimes the guy throwing stones at you is the same guy sitting next to you at church. You can still shake his hand and wish him peace. You don't have to throw stones back.

Make no mistake.

When you have BILLIONS in a town the size of Buffalo, you got power. Everyone —news papers, media—wants a taste. Needs it.

I remember this 1/10/14 meeting with @Neilyoung in @realDonaldTrump's Trump Tower office, a very chummy confab where Neil asked DJT for $3 million. I guess Neil felt differently not so long ago.

Still love his music tho. Legend.

It was determined they helped trump win the election with hacking. Many pro trump bots originate from Russia. Many new witnesses come out and say Trump worked with Russia Assange being latest. There was caputo who contradicts his self regarding being a tie between T and Russia

What's your point? Cohen cooperated. Stone obstructed, threatened witnesses, and defied orders. But who cares, maybe @realDonaldTrump will see your tweet and pardon you for your crimes against intellectual honesty. Or maybe you just don't know jack about law enforcement.

In her prosecutorial rant earlier today during #RogerStone's sentencing, "Judge" Amy Berman Jackson, from the bench, claimed Trump needed someone to cover for him, that there was no political persecution, and that the jury was unbiased.

How can @realDonaldTrump not pardon him?

Russia will always interfere in our elections, and we will always mess around in theirs. This isn't new. The Clinton administration sent me to Moscow to meddle in Russian elections. It's standard stuff and we simply need to act accordingly.

This is an interesting thread.

Ok it's time for RNC to hire a British political operative to make up dirt about Sanders' Russian ties, use it to justify an FBI counterintelligence probe AND a FISA warrant on Sanders' campaign aide then leak it all to the media before the election. That's how it goes, right?

MSNBC no longer has any identity except as a mouthpiece for the DNC and the intelligence community. I would hope someone in its lineup of news readers has an attack of conscience and tries to speak out against what the network has become @chrislhayes

Michael Tracey @mtracey
At least among Bernie supporters, shouldn't there be more stigma about going on MSNBC than going on FOX? Bernie's campaign manager said this week that MSNBC's coverage has been much worse than FOX. And Bernie himself reportedly confronted an MSNBC producer before the last debate

I went on a date with every presidential candidate so you don't have to. (thread 1/9)

Bernie Sanders

He picks you up at your apartment and takes you on the subway to Gray's Papaya. He orders two Recession Specials for a total of $10.86 and you split the bill down the middle (even though he got a large soda). He yells in your face for three hours. You go home and cry into your pillow for six.

Conlon's was an old school bar in South Buffalo, a great place for a cold brew. These neighborhood bars are disappearing as WNY loses population, mostly due to the policies of the people now temporarily inhabiting Conlon's.

@mattshuham I never called @carterwpage "coffee boy" and nobody ever has. Your teenage snark splashed back to soak you.

It's a simple CPAC media guide story assignment, Matt, and you even screwed that up. Correct your word salad.

NARRATOR: They're not sending their best people.

> Former Trump campaign adviser Carter Page, for example, is no longer just a "coffee boy" as the President's former campaign aide Michael Caputo once called him — he's a "Hero of Activism,"

Trump is doing in this #caronavirusoutbreak exactly what he should do. Assess it, explain it, then delegate it to Pence. I know the left will attack him, but delegating to your assets IS leadership. This kind of thing is exactly why Pence is part of the team.

It's wild to me that everyone involved in legal cases in DC knows that the Democrat jury pool there makes it harder for Republican defendants, yet it's just accepted as some sort of immutable law of nature that cannot be fixed.
